1. The following additional information on the contacts of subject person within the USSR has been obtained from Headquarters' files.

a. Viola SANDROOS, alias KRONS, was born in Detroit, Michigan, 11 January 1918. Nationality, American. Her parents were probably Finnish, possibly Latvian or Estonian. She and her lover, KAHWLER, carried out espionage missions in Latvia and Reichenberg (now Liberec, Czechoslovakia) for the Soviet Union. She was arrested by the Germans and transferred to Prague where she was used as a double agent from 1943. She had been assigned to assist Boerner in Austria.

b. DAHM, Richard Adolf Theodor (aka BOHM, Rikhard Adolf Theodor) was born 27 September 1905 in Germany. He has been a Finnish citizen since 1939. He was a German agent in Helsinki during World War II, but was involved in agent recruiting rather than espionage. He was arrested and released under observation in 1944. He was arrested and turned over to the Soviets by Leino Interior Ministry of Finland in 1945.

2. It is desired that all information PARVILAHTI may have on SANDROOS be extracted, especially details such as her status at Dudinka, nature of her contacts with PARVILAHTI, her current status in Sortavala, and details of her own account of her past activities.

3. PARVILAHTI should be closely questioned for any knowledge he may have acquired of DAHM's activities for the Germans, circumstances of his arrest and deportation, and the extent of knowledge of the Soviets about DAHM's past activities.

4. Information is desired on Raoul WALLENBERG as to this person's status, whereabouts, and at what dates information on him was received.
